Winner—B. c. by Faverdale—Ecola (trained by M. S. Skiles).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Echo Dale was very fit and well handled. Off well in motion, he forced the pace nearly all the way, but the effort told on him and he was tiring at the end, only lasting through Milburn outfinishing Walsh. Carroll D. ran well and would have won but for being in deep going near the rail in the stretch. Guess Work is worth remembering with a good rider up. His race was an excellent one. Frank Kenney tired in the final drive. Mosketo was crowded out at the start, but finished strongly and was gaining at the end. Andrattus began slowly. Gwynne will do when properly placed and with better handling. Alpaca was interfered with right after the start. The last half dozen at the start had not much chance.
Scratched—36246 Seditio, 90; 35933 Messina, 90; 36002 Ace of Spades, 89; 36334 Stella W., 84; 36192 Patronymic, 84; 36334 Issa K., 84.

Winner—B. f. by Florist—Effe C. (trained by H. T. Griffin).
Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Lulu Marr has developed into a fair sort of a filly, moved up fast on the turn and drew away in the stretch under a hard drive. Mount Hope received a lucky start and ran a good race. Mrs. Frank Foster is speedy, travels far with each race and should improve. Sweet Marjorie would have been a keen contender with a good start and closed a tremendous gap. Profitable's performance was a good one. Guess made up a lot of ground from a poor start. Daddy Bender was repeatedly interfered with. Turnpike was sharply cut off right after the start and was not persevered with.
Scratched—36047 Mayor Graham, 107; 36338 Bassano, 104; 36004 Breaker, 104; 36338 Star and Garter, 104; 36263 Wannakee, 104; 36140 Baglets, 104.
Overweights—Mount Hope, 1 pound; Dusky Secret, 1; Adele Harding, 4.
Lulu Marr, show, 6 to 5. Mount Hope, show, evens. Mrs. Frank Foster, show, 2 to 1. Bernard, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. c. by Henry of Navarre—Flying Fish (trained by J. J. Hyland).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Flying Jib was outrun in the first part of the race, but he came around the field on the stretch turn and closed up fast in the final furlong, going away at the end. He is a strong stretch runner and a long route seems to be his forte. Watkins Overton ran a good race, worked his way through the field and got through next to the rail and is a good stretch runner. He was in the deep going and outgamed Sun Gold in a hard drive. The latter, a good looking, big colt, was high in flesh and showed a good burst of speed, fought out the finish stoutly and will win in the same company. Cranesville was poorly handled throughout. Earl of Warwick could not last the distance. Witfull was never dangerous.
Scratched—36360 Hackensack, 110; 36314 Athelroy, 110; 36338 Reckless, 107; 36360 Florham Queen, 107; 36226 White Ghost, 107; 36335 Charnel, 104.
Flying Jib, show, out. Watkins Overton, show, 2 to 1. Sun Gold, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Br. c. by Lord Hartington—Mary Greenwood (trained by E. Garrison).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Setauket, in light, had clear sailing all the way and won in a romp. Desouza had him in the middle of the track all the way. Caithness ran under restraint to the stretch and closed up fast at the end. Barbara Frietchie weakened toward the end under a drive. Lord Pepper is only a sprinter. Lady Radnor showed improvement and was a sharp contender for seven furlongs. Trump, made too much use of in the first half, tired. He was in deep going next to the rail all the way.
Setauket, show, evens. Caithness, show, 7 to 5. Barbara Frietchie, show, out.

Winner—B. c. by Quicklime—Belle Baden (trained by W. Wright).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Paul Creyton showed the most speed, forced the pace all the way and was easily the best at the weights. Prancer is consistent. His race was a good one and he was under a drive nearly all the way. Attila, in close quarters to the stretch, could not get through in time, but finished with a rush and should have been second. Lady Teazle found the route too far. White Owl had no mishaps. The Goldfinder was flatfooted at the start. The last four at the start had little chance.
Scratched—35937 Sailor Cadmus, 108; 36210 Rightaway, 105; 36244 Playlike, 105; 36266 Flo Russell, 105; 35691 Destitute, 102; 36266 Frank Love, 102; 36192 Atheola, 102; 36266 Knight Templar, 102; 36266 Francois, 97; 36266 Bedlam, 102.

Winner—B. c. by Juvenal—Sandola (trained by J. Frayling).
Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Satire ran about the best race of his career, showed plenty of speed and hung on gamely when caught and outlasted Circus. The latter rounded to with a rush, was in light and would probably have won but for being interfered with by Satire in the last hundred yards. Cogswell had a rough journey, closed up fast at the end under the whip and would have won in another fifty yards. He is in good form at present. Rice did not make a move on G. Whittier until the stretch was reached and went from restraint to a drive, as the weight told on him. Carbuncle ran in the middle of the track all the way and swerved several times in the run through the stretch. Young Henry was anchored by the weight and was eased up at the end.
Scratched—(36291) April Shower, 117; 36267 Daly, 113; 36313 Courtenay, 108.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Secretary Nathanson, of the Lakeside Jockey Club, announced officially yesterday that "Dick" Rome had been ruled off the turf for life for using abusive and insulting language to Judge Hamilton, Levy, Chicago. Elsie L. is a three-year-old filly and consequently ineligible to next year's American Derby.

Hank, Chicago. Your wager on Cornwall, fifth race, November 14, was a draw.

Gleason, St. Louis. The price quoted was correct.

BIG THOROUGHBRED SALE.

Woodard & Shanklin's big sale of thoroughbred yearlings, horses in training and brood mares begins at Lexington, Ky., November 27, when 150 yearlings, 75 horses in training and about 50 brood mares will be sold. Yearlings from many of the most prominent breeders in America will be sold; the entire string of horses in training of Chinn & Forsythe, besides many good winners from other stables. Write for catalogue and send entries for supplement.

BOUND FOR NEW ORLEANS.

South Chicago in the neighborhood of Ninety-third street presented an unusual scene of activity during the forenoon yesterday. The New Orleans special, which was scheduled to leave at 2 p. m., caused owners intending to ship to the Crescent City to bestir themselves early and send their charges to the loading place. Long before the palace cars had been backed up to the platform strings of horses surrounded the depot and at intervals were reinforced by new arrivals. The loading of the horses consumed very little time and little trouble was experienced by attendants who had this in charge, but when it came to loading the chattels the real trouble began. It appeared as if half the stuff used by the stables would have to be left behind on account of the limited space in the cars, but in some mysterious manner everything was gotten aboard and eleven of the twelve cars were loaded and ready for departure by 3 p. m. Then another unlooked for trouble arose. A score of railroad detectives in charge of Acting Chief McGraw made their appearance and began searching the cars for "hustlers." All who could not show a ticket proving that he was an attendant was taken in charge and led within the depot, which was converted into a sort of impromptu lockup. It was not long before more than thirty persons had been hauled out of the cars from all sorts of places where they had stowed themselves. Many were later turned loose when the owners had provided them with tickets, it being the rule that one attendant was allowed with every horse. Among those who were taken off the cars by the detectives was jockey C. Bonner, who is in the employ of W. H. Fizer. The rider displayed a big roll of bills and stated that he was going to pay his fare on his arrival at Grand Crossing, where the passenger coaches were waiting to be coupled on, but his plea fell on deaf ears, and not until Owner Fizer made his appearance and vouched for the rider was he permitted to go. As soon as the work of the detectives had been finished, the twelve cars containing the horses were taken to Grand Crossing, where two day coaches, one sleeping car and a baggage coach were coupled and the train proceeded on its way to New Orleans, where it is due to arrive Sunday morning. Among the prominent buyers and their horses that left on the train are the following:

H. T. Griffin, in charge of trainer H. McCoulsky—Jove, Florestan, Impetuous and Musical Slipper. M. Foster—Faka, Count E'm Out, Sam McKeever. John F. Barrett's, in charge of W. Nutt—Barrack, Della Ostrand.

W. H. Fizer—Hucena, Tom Collins, Swordsman, Sue Johnson, Foundling, If You Dare, Lazarre, Cynthia, Sue's Sister, Miss Gollylight, Tickful. James Arthur—Pirate's Queen, Andes, John A. Clarke, W. J. Deboe, Moroni, Apple Sweet, Philo, Little Elkin, Frank M., Arvensis, The Caxton, Springstead, Illuminate.

P. M. Hedges—James J. Corbett, Lord Canterbury. McNulty & McDermott—O'Hagen, Dorandall. T. Carey—Nellie Waddell, Pronta and a two-year-old by Panstus—Cora Knight.

Hatfield & Ownbey—Chickadee, Moabina, Lady Alberta, Red Sam, Carl Kahler, Aurie B. R. M. Westerfield—Ben Chance, Azim, Sarilla, Knightbanner and one two-year-old.

 Winner—B. c. by Bramble—Promenade (trained by J. Maiden).
 Went to post at 4:18. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Flaneur was at home in the going, went to the front on the backstretch and had plenty in reserve at the finish. King Barleycorn was crowded back at the first turn, but came through next to the inside rail at the stretch turn and finished strongly. King's Pet closed a big gap, caught Tiburon tiring in the stretch run and outgamed him when it came to a drive. Alee and Lennep showed early speed.
 Scratched—(34772) Tammany Chief, 109; 36367 Georgia Gardner, 109; 36342 Meggs, 105; 36292 Senator Beveridge, 105; 36365 Onanetta, 92.

 Winner—Ch. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Florentina (trained by R. L. Ledgett).
 Went to post at 2:07. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Estado was lucky and skillfully ridden and stood a long drive gamely. Azarine was nearly left, closed a great gap, finished fast and was much the best. Elkarn forced the pace and displayed superior early speed, but made a wide stretch turn and was tiring at the end. Harry Thatcher made up some ground in the stretch. Sir Lewis showed speed, but failed to stay and is strictly a mudlark. Parsifal is the same and sulks when without blinkers.
 Estado, show, 7 to 5. Azarine, show, 3 to 5. Elkarn, show, 3 to 1. Sir Lewis, show, 1 to 4.

 Winner—Br. c. by Altamex—Paloma (trained by C. T. Patterson).
 Went to post at 2:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Polonius, under pressure to get up, wore the pacemaker down in the last sixteenth and won going away. He is steadily improving and ran like a stayer. Proper broke flatfooted and failed to get into action until too late, closed up with a rush right at the end and caught Organdie napping in the last stride for second place. The latter, excessively used, displayed brilliant early speed and, tiring at the end, swerved over to the rail under a weak finish and was unlucky to lose. Jockey Club should improve. Claude can do much better.
 Polonius, show, 1 to 5. Proper, show, 1 to 5. Organdie, show, 1 to 5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In order to keep a race meeting free from scandal of any kind the officials of a track are forced to exercise the greatest care and be constantly on the alert, and even though they take every precaution, it frequently happens that unlawful things occur. These days it is a constant battle on the part of the officials against the unscrupulous portion of horsemen, bookmakers and race followers. There are many men in this world who are willing to gamble on a proposition providing they have an even break and there are others who want several aces in the hole. It is this class which needs watching. It should be of some consolation to the public to know that 99 per cent. of the men on the turf who resort to crooked methods to further their interests always wind up broke. It is the horseman who runs his horses on the square, the bookmaker who makes a legitimate book and the turf follower who always takes it for granted that the game is being conducted on the level who stands the best chance of doing well at the racing game. It is naturally to the interest of racing officials to keep the game as pure as possible, and there is not the slightest doubt that they put forth every effort in this direction. There are so many ways of doing wrong and so many persons willing to do wrong that the life of an official on a race track is not all strewn with roses, and it is to their watchfulness that the game owes its present standing. Taken as a whole, there are few illegitimate tricks turned on the turf these days which escape the notice of the officials.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Several Kentucky breeders are industriously looking over the country for Dan Regan, a horse once in John E. Madden's stable, but which, so far as known, has never graduated from the maiden class. The reason of the eagerness to secure Dan Regan is that he is a full brother to August Belmont's sensational sire Hastings, leading winning stallion of 1902. Dan Regan last raced at New Orleans, but since then all trace of him has been lost.

H. G. Brown's True Blue, which has given such a good account of himself at Bennings, will not be seen again until the New Orleans meeting. He pulled up so lame after his winning race on Monday that it was decided to throw him out of training for a time.

At a sale held in the paddock at Latonia previous to the races Wednesday the following horses were sold: Brissac, to J. Brill, $700; Siphon, to J. Brill, $300; Relucant, to N. J. Wood, $140; Sunro, to J. Weaver, $75; Belle of Worth, to C. E. Shoenberg, $70.
